

Borrower's Acknowledgement of Receipt – FHA New Construction

FHA requires the builder to provide the following information to borrowers:

- The owner's manual and manufacturer's warranty documents for the heating and cooling units, water heater, and major appliances;
- Documents that identify the carpeting (brand, weight, color, etc.) and the manufacturer's recommended maintenance program for the carpets;
- A certification card with the pertinent data and specifications related to the insulation.

I hereby acknowledge that I have received this information to my satisfaction.
